Competition Night – ‘The Decisive Moment’ - DPI

Henri Cartier-Bresson's image, 'Behind Gare Saint Lazare', is often used to illustrate the 'decisive' moment. Our working definition for tonight's competition was 'The moment in time that "makes" a photo. Your shutter clicked at just the right moment.'

It is not just street photography that embraces this concept. Nature photography is full of moments where timing is all. Capturing a moment of fleeting light conditions can make or break a landscape image. Great sports photography is often linked to moments of action or emotion.

Our judge this evening is Stephen Wilcox LRPS who is a member of Wellington & District Camera Club. Stephen enjoys a wide range of photography which will be useful in view of the likely range of subject matter in the competition.
